

Taleo University Announcement: In a tough economy, make your training dollars go farther!

Purchase Taleo Enterprise Library Card Packs and get extra users trained for FREE!

Purchase an eLearning Library Card Pack by December 21, 2008, and receive 20% additional named users on your annual subscription.

The Taleo Enterprise Library Card Program is a cost-effective, fast pass to all 13 Taleo University self-study eLearning offerings (over 24 hours of training), available anywhere at any time. Students use Taleo Library Card access to introduce themselves to Taleo products, to review selected training topics, or to learn new applications, on their own schedule and at their own pace.

Below is the detailed description for this program, which can also be viewed on our training portal, from www.taleo.com, under Taleo University when you select Register for Courses. A self-playing, narrated description can be viewed and shared with customers at:

www.taleotraining.com/sample

Library Card holders have access to all courses in the current catalog as well as new courses as they are added.

Who is this program available for?

All Taleo Enterprise Edition customers.

Prerequisites

None.
